

Lidija Simunovic (LL.M, PhD) is an Assistant professor at the Department of Business Law at Faculty of Law Osijek, Croatia. She obtained her bachelor's degree at Faculty of Law in Osijek and in 2018 she defended her PhD degree at the Faculty of Law in Zagreb in Commercial Law and Company law (topic: Set-off). In 2019, she passed bar exam and in 2020, she passed an exam for a bankruptcy administrator. She was researcher at the Max Planck Institute in Hamburg in Germany, at the Faculty of Law in Vienna, at the Faculty of Law in Barcelona etc. She regularly teaches several courses at undergraduate and postgraduate studies: Contract Law, Company Law, Competition Law and Insolvency Law.

She is a member of clinical program at Faculty of Law in Osijek, Croatian Association for Competition Law and Policy, Croatian Association of Bankruptcy Administrators. She was a member of the project team such as Jean Monnet Module in EU Competition Law at Faculty of Economics in Osijek, MELE project, LPEs in Distress by INSOL International etc.

She is an Erasmus coordinator at the Faculty of Law. She regularly participates at international conferences in Croatia and abroad and she was a coach and arbitrator at the Vis Moot Court Competition in Vienna and Hong Kong.

She is an author of a monography book Set-off and numerous articles, essays and chapters in books dedicated to different fields of law. She focus is Commercial Law, Insolvency Law, Company Law and Competition Law.

List of the publications is available at the:

<https://www.bib.irb.hr/pregled/profil/32981>